

HouseMaster Home Inspections Expands to Colorado Springs

Local business professional Wayne Helm brings established home inspection brand to the region

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO, USA, September 10, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- HouseMaster, the first and most experienced home inspection franchise in North America, announces the opening of a new location in Colorado Springs owned by successful business leader Wayne Helm.

Helm brings a wealth of experience to his new venture. He has spent more than 30 years in sales and marketing, most recently involved with new home constructions. His long standing professional experience will help him build new, strong relationships with Realtors and lenders in the community.

While searching for a new professional adventure, Helm discovered the HouseMaster franchise concept and realized it was the perfect fit. It complements his professional experience. It allows him to own a business, use his skill sets and directly help people everyday.

"I was researching a potential franchise to purchase and HouseMaster stood tall amongst the rest," Helm said. "HouseMaster gives me the opportunity to build a strong business I can pass on to my children — I'm excited about the work I'll be doing making an impact in our local real estate community."
