China Flip-Flop Market 2020

Summary: -

China's footwear industry has been successful in maintaining its position as the world's largest footwear manufacturer and consumer.

However, due to rising labor costs and currency appreciation in recent times, it has witnessed slow demand from the export market. China has been losing its traction as the largest supplier of footwear, due to employee shortages in coastal areas and surging production costs. Although the footwear industry is increasingly facing the tough challenges, owing to a large population base and rising standards of living, the footwear market has risen at a steady pace.

Intensifying competition has provided industry players with more room for market development. Well-known international brands have adopted aggressive promotional strategies to capture a bigger market share. Hence, although given some obstacles in the growth path of footwear industry in China, footwear products are expected to become more specialized, and competition is further expected to heat up in near future.
