

Milkio cultured organic grass-fed ghee: a smart kitchen staple with loads of health benefits

Milkio cultured organic grass-fed ghee is high-aroma, zero-lactose dairy that is storage friendly, USDA certified, non-GMO and organic endorsed by BioGro, NZ.

HAMILTON, AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND, September 18, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cultured grass-fed ghee is a unique dairy product, which contains zero-lactose. No-lactose content makes it ideal for severely dairy sensitive consumers, as they can have cultured ghee to their diet without the risk of food sensitivity. Recently, Milkio Food has introduced cultured organic grass-fed ghee in their product portfolio. Prepared from cultured butter, cultured organic grass-fed ghee contains only lactic acid instead of lactose: as this unique ghee is cooked from cultured butter, the entire lactose of milk gets converted into lactic acid and that makes the cultured ghee more digestion-friendly and 100% risk-free of food sensitivity.
