About Iana Dixon

Iana Dixon started designing “The Pearl and Inspiration” collection after she was faced with a real problem. How to find the balance between quality and price when using natural gemstones? She decided to create a long lasting and sensitive skin friendly jewelry in conjunction with a rare kind of natural freshwater pearls. As all of her jewelry does, this line exceeds standards in quality, style and beauty. After carefully searching for the most ideal pearls to use in her collection, she decided to follow her manner of creation of durable, non-allergenic, stylish jewelry. Perfect for when the customer cannot afford to buy solid gold to protect their health. Iana Dixon combined the finest freshwater pearls with gold filled and sterling silver chains, components and materials. Beautiful, stylish, low maintenance and long lasting, these materials are the perfect balance to create timeless pieces. Who knows, maybe some of these pearl jewelry will become family heirlooms?
