Author Jane Boon to lead a discussion on edge play on #SexTalkTuesday

Before diving into writing erotica, Jane Boon studied technology and policy at MIT, and later received a Ph.D. in industrial engineering. Jane has also written for publications like The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg Businessweek, Time.com, McSweeneys.net, and TravelandLeisure.com. Jane enjoys improv and playing dress-up, including the time she wore a corset, garters and thigh-high stockings as a dominatrix in the Fox TV series, Gotham. Edge Play is her first novel.

"I would describe Edge Play as 50 Shades of Grey meets The Big Short by way of Billions, only the women wield the whips and the men submit," said Jane Boon.

Sex Talk Tuesday is a fun and provocative Twitter-based chat held every second Tuesday of the month and is hosted and coordinated by Sssh.com, your ultimate source for award-winning, sex positive adult cinema for women and couples.

Each session, a guest moderator asks thought-provoking questions to a large and active group of participants, who send hundreds of tweets during each round of #SexTalkTuesday. The result is a lively and entertaining discussion that invites participants to be open and candid with their thoughts and opinions on sex, life, love and the humor of it all, in a way that fosters a supportive and compassionate environment for the conversation.
