"Be Kind is such an important piece for me because it provided an outlet to express my emotions during such a tumultuous journey," says Cyrilia. "As I stay on top of the news, it has become evident that women and children are experiencing incidents of abuse at increased rates, due to the ongoing pandemic. As such, I felt I needed to do a live, new version of Be Kind to raise awareness and help fight against this abuse."

"There have been many abusers in my life, and I want others to know they are not alone," states Cyrilia. "Recently, I called out the names of the men who molested and raped me in a live stream.
