

HRMS Solutions Certified as a Great Place to Work for 5th Consecutive Year

Esteemed Designation Repeatedly Recognizing HRMS' Ongoing Ability to Provide an Outstanding Workplace and Culture

BOULDER, CO, UNITED STATES, September 24, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HRMS Solutions, Inc. (HRMS), a human capital technology advisory, implementation and consulting services firm today announced it is a Great Place to Work-Certified™ for 2020 – and for the fifth consecutive year.

Certification is a significant achievement and is awarded to superior performing companies. Using validated employee feedback gathered with Great Place to Work's rigorous, data-driven methodology, certification confirms that HRMS team members have a consistently positive experience and are highly satisfied with the firm.

"We are pleased and excited to be Great Place to Work-Certified™ again," says Mike Maiorino, Founder and CEO of HRMS. "This distinguished designation reflects well on our company and our commitment to a culture of excellence. It recognizes our efforts to ensure our people have the tools and support they need to be productive, motivated, challenged and celebrated at HRMS. Earning the certification consistently over the last 5 years is evidence that we are doing the right things. It solidifies that our culture and business philosophy are indeed working."

Mike Maiorino, Founder and CEO

For more than seventeen years, HRMS has enabled businesses to better manage, empower and optimize their workforce with leading human capital and talent management solutions. Our success is based on our employee's ability to exceed customer expectations through extraordinary service. It is critical we maintain a very positive, supportive culture in which our employees can learn, grow, and thrive.

This respected certification reflects HRMS' ongoing commitment to provide a positive and engaging work atmosphere based on our core values and supports our mission to deliver an exceptional experience to our customers,” said Sandi Mundt, Marketing Director. “We strive to make the employee experience at HRMS a priority every day and it means a lot that our employees have reported a consistently positive experience with their coworkers, leadership, and with their jobs. This is important to us because we know that when our employees have a high-trust experience every day they are more productive, drive better business results and make a difference to our customers.”

“We congratulate HRMS, on their Certification,” said Sarah Lewis-Kulin, Vice President of Best Workplace List Research at Great Place to Work. “Organizations that earn their employees’ trust create great workplace cultures that deliver outstanding business results.”
