

The SheNetwork® Trademark Reveals Unique Space For Women Entrepreneurs

The SheNetwork® (Sharing Her Excellence) was founded to give women a community to give and receive encouragement, empowerment, and support.

PROSPER, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, September 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- International speaker, successful mompreneur, and trainer and coach, Taylor Thompson is making a big impact in the business world. The business mogul recently received the registered trademark for her new network, The SheNetwork® (Sharing Her Excellence). Additionally, she recently launched "The Millionaire Training" to rave reviews.

The SheNetwork® (Sharing Her Excellence) was founded and created out of Thompson's personal experiences that convinced her that women need community, a safe haven where they can give and receive encouragement, empowerment, and support as they strive to be the best of who they were created to be. Let's face it: there is enough competition in the world, but The SheNetwork® is a place where you can come to collaborate with other women," says Thompson.

"Managing mindset is daily, and as women entrepreneurs, challenges come at us from every direction," says Thompson. "From relationships, finances, health, parenting, and building our business, while you forsake self-care." Thompson decided enough was enough and set out to found The SheNetwork® (Sharing Her Excellence). Thompson explains that "it's about creating a community where women collaborate versus compete."
