Schiff has never cared much about our 28th District, using the Congressional seat as a placeholder for higher office. I actually care about the District and its people.”

U.S. CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE ERIC EARLY

Burbank, CA – California U.S Congressional Candidate & Attorney ERIC EARLY (R) www.ericearly.com who is challenging Adam Schiff’s Congressional seat this November in California’s 28th Congressional District; announced today that he and Adam Schiff will debate on Oct 5th 2020 from 3:30-4:30pm. The League of Women of Voters Burbank/Glendale chapter will host the event. This will air live on The Burbank Channel (Spectrum Cable Channel 6 or AT&T Channel 99) and on Burbank’s You Tube channel www.youtube.com/theburbankchannel Early said, “Schiff had originally agreed to an in-person debate, yet for some reason, last week the debate was changed to a Zoom video debate. We can only assume that Schiff decided to stay in hiding over 3000 miles away back home in Maryland where he lives.”

Early said, “Schiff has never cared much about our 28th District, using the Congressional seat purely as a placeholder for higher office. Our District needs a Congressman who lives here and actually cares about the District and its people. Not a political tool like Adam Schiff who treats our District as an afterthought to enable him to grab headlines. Schiff should show up in-person for the debate and face the music."

Early continued, "I will appear at the debate in-person and I'm inviting voters to come and attend in-person as well. All CDC protocols will be followed."

Immediately following the debate, Eric will address the media at the same location.

THE LOCATION WILL BE AT 940 W OLIVE AVE., BURBANK CA.
