get better results. In the first 18 months, MichelleCunningham.com has crossed over the million dollar milestone in business growth, impacting the lives of work from home women all over the world.

Cunningham was a skeptic when she was first introduced to network marketing. When she started and shared her excitement with her family, the words out of their mouths were, “That’s a Pyramid Scheme and a Scam.” As an excited 23 year old new to the industry, that was not exactly the reception Cunningham had hoped for. As an introvert, Cunningham struggled for the first 6 years, too scared to tell anyone about her business. At the age of 29, she finally found a simple system that changed everything and her business exploded. Over the next 11 years, Michelle built an eight figures sales organization while empowering other women on her team to step into their greatness and shine.

“For me, growing up shy and broke, I just always felt less than those around me. And then, to be throw into network marketing with tons of fearless leaders, I felt intimidated and too scared to take action. But after six years of being stuck, I applied a few simple changes, and everything changed in my business," says Cunningham. "I took my failing business from $0 in sales to over eight-figures in sales. And my mission is to now share with others across the world that YOU CAN CHANGE EVERYTHING. Sometimes, you just need the right training, a little spark and a daily actions plan to get you there."
