Fullbay, the leading shop management software for heavy-duty repair shops, announced today the first-ever Repair Shop Owner Appreciation Week. Aimed at honoring the men and women who own and operate heavy-duty repair shops, the celebration will run October 5-9, 2020, and be recognized annually during the first full week of October.

Fullbay is the leading heavy-duty repair shop management platform

Jacob Findlay, CEO and co-founder of Fullbay, said it's long overdue to give recognition to repair shop owners. "We celebrate truck drivers and technicians, but we felt that owners deserved their time in the spotlight as well," Findlay said. "Repair Shop Owner Appreciation Week is a small way of giving back to the amazing people creating jobs and keeping vital equipment up and running."

These unsung heroes play a huge role in moving economies forward and we're thrilled to be able to give them the attention they deserve."

Fullbay is celebrating by recognizing a different shop owner each day during the week. The winner's entire shop will receive a catered lunch, as well as a special present for the owner. Members of the repair community are encouraged to participate by nominating an exceptional shop owner before October 9, 2020, at 8 a.m. PT.

Repair Shop Owner Appreciation Week is part of Fullbay Cares, a program that gives back to the heavy-duty repair community. Since May 2020, Fullbay Cares has donated more than $15,000 to charities supporting the heavy-duty industry and released a free repair shop coloring book for families.

“Running a repair shop is hard work,” Findlay said. “These unsung heroes play a huge role in moving economies forward and we’re thrilled to be able to give them the attention they deserve.”
