That's why I am excited about Maula Jatt, because it has Bilal Lashari's direction, cinematography combined with a great story, great screenplay . . . I think it will surpass Jawani Phir Nahi Ani”

Hamza Ali Abbasi

Hamza Ali Abbasi has given this exclusive interview after a long break, and is seen having a very candid discussion on different topics, ranging from his upcoming film "The Legend of Maula Jatt", to twitter, religion, politics, PTI, Imran Khan, Ertuğrul (Turkish TV series), Javed Ahmed Ghamidi , Fawad Khan, Bilal Lashari, his own past films including Jawani Phir Nahi Ani (JPNA) and his views on item number songs.

Below are excerpts from this interview:

Responding to a question about item number songs, Hamza said:

"It's (item number songs) bad from a religious point of view, it's bad even from a secular point of view. You don't demean a woman on screen and call it art".

When asked about his upcoming film "The Legend of Maula Jatt", Hamza said:

“That’s why I am excited about Maula Jatt, because it has Bilal’s (Bilal Lashari’s) direction, cinematography combined with a great story, great screenplay – so that’s definitely something that I am looking forward to – and I think that it will surpass Jawani Phir Nahi Ani”

On his views about the Turkish play Ertuğrul, Hamza very happily replied:

“You see I am just happy something became such a big success without an item number in it”

About the recent sugar report that was made public, Hamza said:

We’ve had the sugar report being made public for the first time, at least in my lifetime.

When host Ahsan Zaman asked Hamza why he supported Imran Khan and PTI, he replied:

He (Imran Khan) is an honest person, that much I can tell you. And the other choices you have Bilal Bhutto, Zardari and Nawaz Sharif, in my mind they’ve been tried and tested, they have done nothing for the country.
