

Alpine Macro Launches U.S. Bond Strategy Coverage

Veteran Fixed Income Strategist Mark McClellan Heads Up New U.S. Bond Service

MONTREAL, QUEBEC, CANADA, October 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Alpine Macro has announced the launch of its new U.S. Bond Strategy publication today. The new strategy service is tailored specifically for fixed income managers or any investor who cares about U.S. credit securities. The service is led by Mark McClellan, Alpine Macro's Chief U.S. Bond Strategist.

"Mark had a distinguished career at the Bank of Canada in the early 1990s and joined BCA Research in 1996 to head the firm's U.S. fixed income team. More than two decades as the company's top bond strategist, Mark developed a global reputation as one of the great thinkers and forecasters in fixed income markets, financial economics, and central bank policy. I have no doubt that our clients will benefit from our U.S. bond coverage," said Tony Boeckh, Alpine Macro's Editor-in-Chief.

"Alpine Macro's U.S. Bond Strategy will primarily focus on U.S. corporate fixed income securities, municipal bonds and asset-backed securities. There are increasing complexities, risks and opportunities in this vast investment universe. Mark's background and expertise will help our clients navigate the crosscurrents of the U.S. fixed income markets," added Chen Zhao, Founding Partner and Chief Global Strategist at Alpine Macro.
