About the 66Kix Tour

The purpose of the 66Kix Tour is to pay tribute to songwriters and musicians in each of the eight states that Route66 traverses, honoring musical legends while showcasing a new generation of gifted artists. The tour is hosted in various Route 66 destinations, such as concert venues, roadside cafes and restaurants, as well as tourist attractions on the Mother Road and the tribute songs will be sung by the best of local musicians and vocalists in each state. The Oklahoma Edition will honor legendary songwriters: Leona Russell, JJ Cale, Reba McEntire, Blake Shelton, Carrie Underwood, Vince Gill, etc. The series provides a new platform for local songwriters to perform original songs, that are captured on video and audio recordings allowing new 4K video content for an all new local digital entertainment channel. This new local channel will stimulate entertainment and economies throughout Route 66 communities. www.66KixTour.com
