

The Next Generation of Influence: Executive Producer, Author, and Actor

Candy Washington is the content creator creating her own lane

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Candy Washington, the female founder of 1214 Media Productions, is creating her own lane as an executive producer, author, actor, podcast host, and digital influencer. Her company provides inspiring content across TV, film, digital, and publishing platforms while elevating and honoring the stories of diverse female protagonists.

Candy's film, Narcissist, which she wrote, starred in, and executive produced, is a psychological thriller about accountability in the digital era. The film explores what happens when the charmed life of a social media starlet comes crashing down in the wake of a young follower's suicide. At its core, the film puts into perspective the role that social media plays in the quality of our mental health. The film is now available on Amazon Prime Video and SofyTV.

Don't wait for anyone to give you permission to go after your dreams. Get up every day and take one step forward. You are enough.”

“My personal and professional purpose is to add value to the lives of others through storytelling - and the most important story that I'll ever tell is my own,” says Candy. It is this ethos of empowerment, creativity, and authenticity that is the driving force behind the young entrepreneur.

She also hosts the Sugar Pills Podcast: A Practical Guide to Self-Care, which provides weekly wellness insights on how to increase your joy, happiness, and health while living life on your own terms and without apology. It's available on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Google Play, and wherever you can listen to podcasts.

Up next for Candy is promoting her latest book, Triggered., a fictional story of a young woman, Sophie Whitley, finally coming into her own sense of self while harboring dark secrets from her past. She's faced with awakening to her true power while searching for her missing best friend with the pool of suspects being closer than you think. It explores both the good and evil sides of the human condition while answering, how far would one woman go to find herself? The book is available at Barnes & Noble, Apple Books, Google Play, Amazon, and wherever books are sold.
