

MicroTech Announces 3-year $38M Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Army (DUSA) Contract Win

TYSONS, VIRGINIA, USA, October 8, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MicroTech is proud to announce it has been awarded a 3-year, $38 million-dollar contract by the Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Army (DUSA). DUSA is the principal advisor to the Under Secretary of the Army and Secretary of the Army. The DUSA directs the Army Science Board and Analytics Group; oversees the Civilian Leadership Service Management Office (CLSMO); and serves as the Deputy Chief Management Officer to the Under Secretary of the Army.

"MicroTech is elated to have received this DUSA contract from the U.S. Army," says said Tony Jimenez, President, and CEO of MicroTech. "As a Retired Army Officer who has served on the Army Staff, I am always excited for an opportunity like this to help the U.S. Army implement transformational changes to its organizational structure, governance, and business operations. We assembled a unique team with AT Kearney, LEVICK, and SPA, as key subcontractors and strategic partners to bring depth of expertise, credibility through experience, and breadth of capabilities to accomplish the analyses, studies, and support needed by the DUSA."

"MicroTech's goal in servicing the contract is to provide the DUSA best-of-breed commercial study methods, tools, and practices to help the Army assess its organization's structure, policies, and performance management systems as the Army shifts toward more agile and adaptive systems and processes," states Preston Quick, Senior Vice President, Intel and Network Solutions. "We bring industry and commercial best practices, C-suite and board advisory experience, techniques, and methods and most importantly a talented group of advisors and subject matter experts to achieve meaningful change as the Army transforms its Headquarters' activities."
