From a security perspective, I also like the having "segregation of duties" which Owl helps us solve," says Reid Johnston, president of TechGen, another organization helping small businesses succeed.

TechGen provides stress free IT services to businesses of varying sizes, and has given excellent IT support to Owl's team by allowing them to "leverage awesome tools like Microsoft Teams, Exchange Online, and SharePoint. [This] in turn, supports [Owl's] clients," adds Johnston.

By enabling multi-factor authentication for all users, TechGen helps keep Owl's accounts and interaction with clients safe.
