

BrownCryptoKid Taking World by Storm as Leader in Crypto Education

His mission is to help non-tech-savvy individuals learn about cryptocurrencies, with most proceeds being donated to several charities fighting sex-trafficking.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned BrownCryptoKid is pleased to announce he is rapidly taking the world by storm as an innovative leader in cryptocurrency education.

Vineeth V, a.k.a BrownCryptoKid, is a young and driven entrepreneur whose mission is to help non-tech-savvy people learn about cryptocurrency. Though he is not a financial advisor, BrownCryptoKid sees the potential of cryptocurrency and believes that everyone should learn how to buy, sell, and use it in their daily lives – even if they typically struggle to adapt to new technology.

“When blockchain technology and cryptocurrency first came out, people thought (and still do think) it is all a big scam – just like they did when the Internet was first developed in the ‘90s,” states BrownCryptoKid. “While this technology has been around for quite some time now, people are still afraid and unknowledgeable about the topic, meaning they won’t use it. My goal is to change people’s understanding of this fascinating and revolutionary technology – giving them the power and confidence to adapt.”

To help individuals become masters of cryptocurrency themselves, BrownCryptoKid has developed a series of exciting, informative, and easy-to-follow cryptocurrency courses. These courses help people to learn the basics of crypto in order to gain confidence, feel more at ease, and comfortably use cryptocurrency in their everyday lives.

“Basically, what I do is teach cryptocurrency in a way that’s super easy for anyone to understand,” says BrownCryptoKid. “In my courses, I don’t use technical language or any of that mumbo-jumbo. I simply show people exactly what cryptocurrency is and what it can do, in the simplest of terms.”

BrownCryptoKid’s leadership doesn’t stop there. As a model and mentor to others, BrownCryptoKid demonstrates further leadership qualities through donating thousands of dollars (about 20%) of his proceeds to several charities that fight to end sex-trafficking. It is this high level of community service and dedication to making the world a better place that sets this young and inspiring entrepreneur above the rest.

Currently, BrownCryptoKid is offering a variety of different membership levels to help support learning about cryptocurrency. These membership levels include:

- Basic package - $20
- Standard package - $40
- BCK VIP client package - $80
- Elite package - $160

“I truly believe that in the future, every central bank around the world will release a Central Bank Digital Currency, which will be backed by gold,” BrownCryptoKid says. “To bridge these currencies, there will be a crypto or a digital asset, and it’s important for people to be armed with knowledge to find out what cryptocurrency will be used worldwide before this change occurs. I can help !”
