

Redwood Residential's Deer Park Crossing Apartments Upgrade to the Future with SemaConnect Charging Stations

New electric vehicle charging stations support sustainability and energy efficiency in Chicago

CHICAGO, USA, October 12, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Redwood Capital Group and Redwood Residential have installed a new luxury amenity for residents at Deer Park Crossing Apartments. Now, residents can charge their electric vehicles at the community's new SemaConnect EV charging station located in the underground garage. The new charging station is open and ready to charge EVs in the community.

The SemaConnect Series 6 charging station at Deer Park Crossing is designed for use with all plug-in electric cars.

The SemaConnect Series 6 charging station at Deer Park Crossing is designed for use with all plug-in electric cars, including Tesla, the Chevy Bolt, and the upcoming Rivian R1T pickup truck built in Normal, Illinois. Designed for shared use, the ENERGY STAR certified charging station features a futuristic, slim design that highlights Deer Park Crossing's modern lifestyles. In support of social distancing, interactive LED lights show station availability at a glance, and smart technology allows residents and management to view station status on the SemaConnect app. With the SemaConnect Network, property management can manage access, control pricing, and download reports on usage and sustainability.

EV charging stations are the top new amenity for multifamily communities, and Redwood Residential has chosen the perfect time to go green. SemaConnect is honored to be their choice for EV charging.”

“This year, our residents are spending more time at home than ever before, which is why we’re prioritizing community amenities and premium living,” said Carly Buechler, property manager at Deer Park Crossing. “Our new SemaConnect charging station is another reason why Deer Park Crossing is the best place to live in suburban Chicago. We’re excited to support our residents who already drive electric cars, and we look forward to helping more people go green.”

“Thousands of drivers in Illinois already own electric cars, and thousands more will make the switch next year,” said Connie Meehan, sales manager at SemaConnect. “Especially during COVID-19, EV drivers need charging stations at their apartments. EV charging stations are the top new amenity for multifamily communities, and Redwood Residential has chosen the perfect time to go green. SemaConnect is honored to be their choice for EV charging at Deer Park Crossing.”
