

Business Leader and Health Researcher KC Craichy to Share About COVID-19 at Church Prepared Event Tuesday

ORLANDO, FLORIDA, USA, October 12, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Business leader and health researcher KC Craichy is hoping to empower faith leaders to safely open churches across America which have been closed for months because of the coronavirus pandemic. Craichy will be speaking during a free online seminar Tuesday Oct. 13, at 10 p.m. Eastern titled Church Prepared – COVID-19 and your Church.

Hosted by the Peaceably Gather Coalition and Christian radio personality Todd Starnes, this event is designed to empower pastors and church leaders to set aside fear and make fact-based decisions regarding COVID-19.

A best-selling author, Craichy has been at the forefront of educating people on COVID-19 through his writings and commentary regarding the latest coronavirus research. His emphasis from the outset has been to set aside the fear and let the facts determine your personal actions and our country's response as a whole.

Craichy has participated in other online educational events recently with respected frontline doctors sharing their experiences treating patients with an integrative approach to medicine with amazing results.
