

Tania Tomyn and Aaron Smith of Retrolock fight for animals' rights

Tania Tomyn of Retrolock makes donations to SPCA of Las Vegas and SPCA of San Francisco.

ORANGE COUNTY, CA, UNITED UNITED , October 13, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Retrolock (RLC) services the Multi-Family, High-Rise building market in California and Nevada as a design-build Interior Sub Contractor ran by Tania Tomyn CEO, with a mission to give back and rescue animals in need.

Now, no-kill rescue organizations are dealing with impacts from COVID and while pet adoption is up many are economic impacts that have caused pets to become homeless or in need. Retrolock will continue to make donations to the organizations doing this work.

Retrolock's offices in Livermore, CA., and Orange, CA., often find small furry friends with their owners at work. Our teams are dog lovers. The Retrolock family welcomes staff to bring them to the office.

Dogs in the office bring a sense of calmness and peace to their owners and the staff, Tania Tomyn of Retrolock advises. Many of our vendors have reached out to us over the years because they protect and donate and support rescue dogs. They truly provide peace and the love they bring is relentless and you can't help but want to do more says, Tania.

About Retrolock: RLC is an interior and sub-contracting company that is thriving as a leader in interior finish scopes and continues to take on high-profile projects in California. The interior
