

St. Joseph Village of Chicago Named One of Chicago's Best Nursing Homes

The community, which provides skilled nursing, independent living, assisted living, memory support and respite care, is one of five nursing homes to be honored.

LEMONT, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- St. Joseph Village of Chicago, a Franciscan Ministries community, has been named one of the top-rated nursing homes in the Chicago area.

The community, which is located at 4021 W. Belmont Avenue in Chicago, was one of five nursing homes recognized by Kev's Best, a local blog that ranks the Chicago area's top businesses.

Winners were selected based on several factors, including industry experience, services offered, social media and website presence, awards, and positive reviews from residents and their family members.

"We are honored to be recognized as one of the top nursing homes in Chicago," said Brian Celerio, executive director at St. Joseph Village. "I am extremely proud of our residents and associates during these unprecedented times. As we transformed how we interact with our residents to ensure safety and health, our continued focus has remained steadfast – providing quality care while helping residents find their purpose at each stage of their lives."

Boasting a rich heritage, St. Joseph Village was established by Mother Mary Theresa Dudzik in 1894 to become the first Catholic senior living community in Chicago. Today, the community serves people of all faiths, providing opportunities for residents to live a fulfilling lifestyle focused on a healthy mind, body and spiritual wellbeing.

From assisted living and memory care to skilled nursing, rehabilitation and respite care, St.

St. Joseph Village of Chicago, a Franciscan Ministries community with a rich heritage of serving Cook County seniors, has been named one of Chicago's best nursing homes.
