About the International Female Ice Hockey Camp

The International Female Ice Hockey Camp is planned to be open in June-July 2021. Its main focus is to establish a community of young female ice hockey athletes and to teach them the specifics of the game, help develop their skills, and show how to build a connection with one another. The girls will study and train with professional female ice hockey players, including Bulbul Kartanbay who will be an instructor and mentor for the young athletes. The girls will also learn how to overcome their fears and doubts, how to achieve both team and individual goals, and how to find out who they are as athletes. The International Female Ice Hockey Camp invites young female ice hockey players from the USA, Canada, China, Japan, Czech Republic, Turkey, Ukraine, Russia, Kazakhstan, and European nations to join the camp next summer and learn from top tier professional athletes. As mentioned above, the registration is already open.

You can also support and assist the young female ice hockey athletes in achieving their goals by becoming a sponsor or donating on the Kartanbay Foundation GoFundMe page. For more information, please click here or contact 300Magazine.
