Enerkon Solar International (ENKS OTC) Plans to establish a SPAC (Special Acquisition Company) to Acquire Companies which may be strategic for the future

DELRAY BEACH, FLORIDA, USA, October 18, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today the Company Chairman Mr. Benjamin Ballout , Stated That " We are planning to establish a SPAC to Acquire Quality Strategic Investments in Companies useful to our future plans and expansion"

Building Utility Scale PV Plants Across Africa and the World

The Chairman Further stated that the company plans to commercialize existing patents already developed or acquired during the coming months and 2021 at which point they will be book as balance items since currently the company does not hold patents at any value until they are commercialized for Monetization and can be valued properly. The company is conservative in its projections valuations and proclamations as while the company has great prospects and positive future possibilities in the diverse area of new technology and the core growth of Solar EPC contracts for the construction of Utility Scale Power Plants in east Africa and other locations, we maintain a conservative policy for our disclosures to the public while we complete our Audit of company Assets and Operations this year"

Enerkon Solar International and New Technologies Holdings Inc are breaking new ground in in Science and Energy”
Mr. Benjamin Ballout CEO
