

Coming to Theaters January 2021: New Drama - My Brother's Keeper - Shares Powerful Story of One Man's Battle with PTSD

New Trailer & Website Launched Today for MY BROTHER'S KEEPER, Starring TC Stallings, Joey Lawrence, Keshia Knight Pulliam, Robert Ri'chard

FRANKLIN, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, October 21, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Collide Distribution and Iconic Events are honored to bring the feature film MY BROTHER'S KEEPER to theaters nationwide. Beginning January 22, 2021, this powerful story of faith and redemption in the wake of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) will hit theaters across the US. Home entertainment will follow in the spring of 2021, through UPHE Content Group.

To celebrate, today the filmmakers at Manns Mackie Studios are launching not only the film website but also debuting a new trailer to launch the project. The trailer can be viewed at mbkfilm.com.

The message of MY BROTHER'S KEEPER is needed, now more than ever," shares Bishop Charles Mackie, Executive Producer and COO of Manns Mackie Studios. "During this pandemic, more people than ever have been silently struggling with PTSD, depression, fear, anger, and a number of other issues. Families have been challenged in learning to support struggling family members during quarantine. MY BROTHER'S KEEPER faces tough issues head-on and gives real hope and help to viewers."

deployment when Preach and his entire Ranger platoon are killed in a deadly improvised explosive device attack. Travis returns to his hometown to settle the affairs of his parents who had passed away years before. In searching for answers about his parents, he also discovers a new obstacle in PTSD. He finds support from church counselor, Tiffany Robertson (Keshia Knight-Pulliam) and slowly begins to rediscover his faith in God, until he discovers a secret. Travis uncovers a secret hidden by his best friend Donnie Berry (Robert Ri'chard) that threatens his new-found faith, restores his guilt, and causes him to consider the unthinkable.

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER was directed by Kevan Otto (A QUESTION OF FAITH, FORGIVEN) and written by US Army Veteran Ty Manns (A QUESTION OF FAITH, THE 5TH QUARTER). The film stars TC Stallings (WAR ROOM, A QUESTION OF FAITH), Joey Lawrence (Melissa & Joey, Blossom, Hawaii Five-0), Robert Ri'chard (COACH CARTER, Empire), and Keshia Knight Pulliam (The Cosby Show).

Tickets for MY BROTHER'S KEEPER will go on sale in early November. Sign up to receive up-to-the-minute information on the film, receive exclusive content, and get information on when local theaters will be re-opening and resuming tickets sales at mbkfilm.com.
