The Mechanical Incorporated facility in Tomahawk will remain open and in operation, with two of the firm’s three owners, Mike Merryfield and Brian Smith, staying with the company. Mechanical Incorporated’s third owner, Rick Larson, has retired.

“The team at Mechanical Incorporated is thrilled about the acquisition into the Tweet/Garot organization,” stated Merryfield. “The technological advancements Tweet/Garot has made, along with the added services and labor force, will create an unmatched mechanical contractor presence in this part of the state.

Howald anticipates retaining the existing workforce. “We will now have the largest and most talented group of pipefitters, sheet metal workers and service technicians in Central and Northern Wisconsin,” Howald said. “This means even better service and response time for our joint customer base.”

Terms of the deal were not disclosed.
