“Trucking accidents are can be very scary and often involve injury,” explained attorney Javier Villarreal, a managing partner at the Villarreal law firm. “We get most of our inquires on car accidents, of course, but we are seeing an uptick in inquiries on truck accidents. Our new archive helps folks start their online research, but we strongly recommend that people reach out to an attorney for a consultation. ”

The new archive on trucking accidents can be found at <https://jvlawfirm.net/tag/trucking-accident-lawyer/>. The new archive consolidates information on trucking accidents. The posts covers the major cities in Cameron County such as Brownsville and Harlingen. It also covers many of the most common concerns such as whether or not a person should call an attorney if they have been involved in a non-injury trucking accident. In addition, the bottom line of the posts is to encourage people to reach out to an attorney for a consultation. Only a trained attorney can assess the facts of a trucking accident and the law. Only a trained attorney can give advice as to whether a person should move forward with litigation or at least talk via an attorney to the trucking company's insurance company.

As a truck accident lawyer in Cameron County, Javier Villarreal aims to be the best lawyer he can be one client at a time. The law firm specializes in personal injury claims for accidents of all types – slip and fall, car wrecks, animal attacks, boat accidents, construction accidents, and more – but above all, truck accidents.

NAVIGATION THE ISSUES AFTER A TRUCKING ACCIDENT

Here is background on this release. Trucking accidents are an unfortunate fact of life in and around Cameron County. Indeed, the area in and around Harlingen and its airport is especially treacherous due to the heavy traffic. High powered, experienced attorneys and staff at the insurance companies for trucks may – unfortunately – act to reduce payments. Securing legal representation may be a good step, especially since in most cases the person will pay nothing unless they win. Without an attorney, winning any sort of settlement can be next to impossible. For these reasons, the law firm is excited to post yet an announcement on the wealth of content it has online for trucking accidents. However, the law firm strongly encourages persons who have been in a trucking accident to reach out for a consultation.
