

National College Resources Foundation Hosts Virtual Seattle/Pacific Northwest Black College Expo

The third annual Black College Expo makes access to higher learning institutions accessible to students in the Pacific Northwest from their home computer.

SEATTLE , WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Due to COVID-19 pandemic, the 3rd Annual Seattle/Pacific Northwest Black College Expo will be hosted LIVE virtually on Friday, October 23rd 2020 from 3pm – 7pm PST. The Virtual Seattle/Pacific Northwest Expo is an ONLINE Experience for students to gain access to colleges, highlighting HBCUs, historically black colleges and universities, and other educational programs.

In an effort to support and connect with students in the Seattle/Pacific Northwest area, National College Resources Foundation has partnered with Seattle Public Schools District and Renton School District.

Sponsored by US Army and Wells Fargo Bank, the Seattle/Pacific Northwest Black College Expo is an opportunity for students to get ACCEPTED on the spot, get their college application FEES Waived and receive SCHOLARSHIPS. This event will help high school seniors and college transfer students looking to transfer to a four-year college.

The poster for the 3rd Annual Black College Expo Virtual College Fair features a vibrant background with red, yellow, and black splatters. At the top, a circular logo reads "BLACK COLLEGE EXPO" with a graduation cap and books. The main text announces the event is "COMING TO SEATTLE - NORTHWEST" and "LIVE" on "FRIDAY 23 OCTOBER 2020" from "3PM - 7PM PST". A stylized graphic of a hand holding a pen is on the left. The poster lists benefits: "Get Accepted to College on the Spot", "Scholarships on the spot", and "Application Fees Waived". It also lists "LIVE Seminars" such as "411 for the Student Athlete", "How to Find Money for College", "How to Start a Business", and "Why Attend An HBCU". A "SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE: Oct 18 Sign Up Today!" is prominently displayed. The "SPONSORED BY" section includes HBCUstartups, Wells Fargo, and the U.S. Army. The "PRESENTED BY" section includes the Black College Expo logo and the National College Resources Foundation logo. The website "WWW.THECOLLEGEEXPO.ORG" is at the bottom.

Wells Fargo has also partnered with the Black College Expo to give away over $5,000 in scholarships.

In addition to getting connected to college recruiters, students will have access to informative seminars and workshops which include but are not limited to “How to Prepare for College” presented by College Prep 365, “411 for Student Athletes during & Post COVID”, and YoYo Teaches: “How to Get A’s in English”.

The Seattle/Pacific Northwest Black College Expo is open to students, educators, and parents of all backgrounds.

About the Black College Expo

Black College Expo™ (BCE) is a trademark program of National College Resources Foundation (NCRF), a 501c3 non-profit organization that functions daily as a full-service student outreach program in various schools. BCE was founded in 1999 by Dr. Theresa Price as a vital link between minorities and college admissions. NCRF's mission is to curtail the high school dropout rate and increase degree and/or certificate enrollment among underserved, underrepresented, at risk, low resource, homeless and foster students. NCRF's vision is to close the gap in educational achievement, workforce and economic disparities with the goal to end racism and racial inequalities.
