

The Brummitt Group Partners with Coppel Chamber of Commerce for Women's Health Panel

Female clinicians and business owners share strategies for putting health first

COPPELL, TX, USA, October 22, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Brummitt Group has partnered with the Coppel Chamber of Commerce and their Women in Business Committee for the third year in a row to bring a Women's Health Panel to Coppel and the surrounding communities. The panel will be held virtually over Zoom on December 3rd at 11:30 am.

Amanda Brummitt of The Brummitt Group will moderate a panel of four amazing women clinicians and business owners through a conversation about making health a priority. They will share their stories as women, as small business owners, and as practicing clinicians juggling all that it entails.

These four amazing women are donating their time to lift up ladies in our community through education and empowerment. We are fortunate to have them as leaders and healthcare providers in Coppel.”

Amanda Brummitt

Guests are in for a fantastic time with Amy Goddard, PT, DPT, OCS, CSCS, PRC of GO Sports Therapy, Susan Harris, MSN, RN, CNM, FNP-C of LifeStream Health Centre & Med Spa, Divya Javvaji, MD of Prime MD Geriatrics, and Angela Moemeka, MD, MBA, FAAP of Mark9 Pediatrics. Each of these impressive healthcare providers is a wealth of information on health, work/life balance, and running a business. They will supply strategies for making health a priority and allow plenty of time for questions from the audience. Registration is open at CoppelChamber.org.
