MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA, October 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The night after the presidential debate; on a day when President Trump campaigns in Florida; one day before former President Obama visits Miami; and in the midst of early voting in the Sunshine State, a brilliant beacon of democracy is flying above the city's skyline -- beckoning people to go to the polls.

The new, futuristic Paramount Miami Worldcenter skyscraper is lighting-up the Nation's Largest Electronic American Flag and Gigantic L.E.D. VOTE button image – vivid reminders that the polls are open.

The tower lightings occur nightly through election evening, November 3, 2020.

Dimensions:

Paramount Miami Worldcenter features the world's most-advanced animation lighting system.

Through the center of the 60-story, $600-million Paramount is a 700-foot-tall vertical stream of red and white L.E.D. stripes combined with the words, "VOTE FLA."

At the top of the building are a 150-foot-tall by 300-foot-wide field of blue with fluttering fivepointed white stars. Interwoven in Paramount's crown is a 300-foot-in-diameter circular "VOTE" button image.

Star-Spangled Signal:

"We are sending-out a star-spangled skyline signal to Florida's 14-million registered voters; encouraging all of us to involve ourselves in this patriotic process by exercising our constitutional right to vote," explains Paramount Miami Worldcenter CEO-Developer Daniel Kodsi (Cod-See).

High-Tech Lighting:

Paramount's state-of-the-art, $3-million Color Kinetics animation lighting system consists of 14,300 light emitting diodes embedded in 10,000 panes of high-impact glass. The system can create 16.2 million color-combinations. It took
