Suzanne Doucet

Industry veteran producer-musician Suzanne Doucet curated and sequenced SFTCXII to relax body and mind, and to open then heart to love. This year's edition presents passionate and diverse new age artists from across the globe, including 2019 GRAMMY® winner Peter Kater, beloved singer and songwriter Miten, flutist Ann Licater and 37 more celebrated artists. In a recent New York Times interview, Doucet commented on the broad New Age music genre, saying "It's not entertainment, it's to expand your consciousness." Doucet is a life-long artist and advocate for the genre; recently, two of her deep catalog projects have been reissued by Light in the Attic and Dark Entries Records. Regarding this year's collection, she says "In this unprecedented time of anxiety, it is more important than ever that we provide musical tools for relaxation and mindfulness. Our compilation includes the most innovative and inspired new age artists on the planet!"

The compilation began -- and continues -- as a non-commercial project to unite and promote the New Age music community. Today, it is the most influential annual series to support New Age musicians making relaxing, meditative and transformational music; the compilations have been used to lend a calming atmosphere to schools, spas, healing centers and hospitals.
