NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, USA, October 27, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hillbilly Love is pleased to announce the formal launch of our new company, and beautiful website. HillbillyLove.com

“There is a strong and on-going global awareness, interest and appreciation for the southern way of life, arts and history,” said Lynda Weingartz, CEO & Founder - Hillbilly Love.

“This cultural evolution is driving a new generational awareness of and demand for freshly-inspired forms of fashion, art and entertainment that are influenced in some way by Hill-Folk and Mountain People from around the world. Our goal is to share the message of Hillbilly Love, while creating positive opportunities to serve our communities, and to support our children's future.”

I'm happy & proud to announce The "Frank Alexander" Leadership Fund. In honor of my father, Hillbilly Love will actively donate 10% of all net profits to youth-focused charities every year.”

Lynda Weingartz, CEO & Founder - Hillbilly Love

Weingartz further states, “I'm truly happy and very proud to announce the formation of The "Frank Alexander" Leadership Fund. My father always believed that investing in our children with strong leadership was the key to our collective success. In honor of my father, Hillbilly Love will actively donate 10% of all net profits to youth-focused charities every year.”

Hillbilly Love is pleased to announce our first Charity Partner, the Share America Foundation. Promoting the traditional music sounds of Appalachia in our youth is the major focus of the Share America Foundation, Inc., a non-profit 501-C3, operating from Catoosa County, Ga. www.ShareAmericaFoundation.org
