LINEN SERVICE FOR DOCTOR'S OFFICES AND DENTISTS IN MAINE

Here is background on this release. Maine's healthcare and medical companies are getting back to work, focusing on expanding their businesses while complying with all governmental standards during the Pandemic and following best practices. Among the best practices for doctor's offices and dental practices is to increase the use of "single use" towels, uniforms, scrubs, and other cloth-based products. They are used once, and then washed. This is to reduce potential transmission from doctor or dentist to patient. Because of this, however, there is expanded need in Maine for linen services, commercial laundry, and uniform rentals. Fortunately, as the new post explains, Crown Linen has expanded its offerings into Maine. Maine businesses are encouraged to reach out for a consultation no how Crown Linen and its linen services, uniform rentals, and commercial laundry capabilities can help any Maine businesses from Portland to Lewiston, Bangor to Auburn, and beyond.
