About Bograd Kids

We pride ourselves on offering custom, eco-friendly, and made in America products. Fine baby and children's furniture designed by Zoya Bograd, ASID. A popular saying indicates that "if something's worth doing, it's worth doing right." Though that phrase can and does apply to so many areas in life, it applies equally well to furniture. After years in the interior design trade, I wanted to bring top tier luxury children's furniture to the retail market and offer custom finishes and fabrics that until now were only available through professional interior designers. The realization of that goal is BogradKids.com, an online retail store catering to those with discriminating tastes and the desire to turn an ordinary room into an extraordinary work of art.
