

Superhuman Prospecting Announces New Headquarters, Debuts New Service Offering

The unveiling of the H2H Sales Scripts® Methodology and Custom Sales Copy Service

NORRISTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, October 27, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Norristown, Pennsylvania: Superhuman Prospecting, a Lead Generation firm specializing in Sales Prospecting, Outsourced Cold Calling and Appointment Setting, is proud to officially announce the relocation of their new headquarters, located at 910 East Main Street, Norristown, PA, 19401.

The 6,000 square foot facility, now home to the Superhuman team and their parent company, Pereus Marketing, offers a larger, collaborative space for its employees who choose to split time between remote and in-office work.

"We are excited to safely utilize our new space and continuously serve our clients through the pandemic," says Ryan Pereus, Founder & CEO of Pereus Marketing and Superhuman Prospecting. "We were fortunate to find such a nice and well-served space, eliminating the need for relocation for our employees."

While the transition to working remote hasn't been all sunshine and rainbows, Ryan notes how important it is to have space for in-person team chemistry and collaboration. "We've been looking at this move for some time now. We knew we needed additional space in a larger building and improved visibility. And even though our entire team isn't able to be here, we understand how important it is for our employees, leadership, and culture to have a secure and collaborative space. We are thrilled to be settled and accelerating forward."

In addition to relocating, Pereus and his team have been on a mission to diffuse the "salesperson stigma" and bring humanity back into sales processes with human-to-human connections and conversations. Ryan recently unveiled a project he has been working on throughout his entire career -The H2H Sales Methodology and the H2H Sales Scripts®.

The book cover features the title "H2H SALES SCRIPTS FOR COLD PHONE CALLS" in large, bold, purple capital letters. Below the title, it says "A Practical Methodology" and "The LITE Guide" with a small icon of a person. At the bottom, the author's name "Ryan S. Pereus" is listed.
