“Our ministry examines worldwide current events and compares them with Bible prophecy. Barela's ministry provides a Biblical response to questions people are struggling to find answers to. This Biblical response allows people to observe what Scripture says about any question, interpret for themselves what the Scripture says, and apply the Scripture to their life, giving them the opportunity to live by faith in response to God's Word.

Today, the Bible, & You focuses primarily on news in Israel, current events, and Biblical prophecy.

The organization recognizes that in the Bible, Jesus not only warned of these very dangerous and perilous times, but also gave the promise of hope.

Additionally, Today, the Bible, & You is involved in mission work all over the world, including Peru, Philippines, Burma, India, Russia, and Uganda. In September, the ministry sent funds to provide rice for missions in Uganda and India. Helping many of the underprivileged of the world is important to Barela and his ministry, believing that "we are designed to live by the indwelling presence of the Spirit of Christ," a spokesperson added.

John Barela is a non-denominational pastor and teacher, author, and former TV and radio commentator.
