

Strategic Partnership: To deliver more value for the end customers, 3Nayan and NetworkGain Consulting

We've entered into a strategic partnership, combining strategy and management consulting services with business technology consulting.

CHENNAI, TAMILNADU, INDIA, October 28, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 3nayan and NetworkGain are pleased to announce they have entered into a strategic partnership, combining 3nayan's strategy and management consulting services with NetworkGain's business technology consulting and their individual eco-system of technology and service partners.

With technology playing an increasingly critical role in every aspect of business, companies recognize that they need to accelerate the development of digital solutions to ensure they remain on the competitive vanguard. The 3nayan-NetworkGain partnership brings together deep skills in business and technology strategy, product ideation, technology development and deployment, go-to-market and business development strategy and organizational change management to help clients through successful transformations.

"The 3nayan-NetworkGain partnership is a powerful and exciting combination. Our core strength in Strategic Transformations, Organizational Effectiveness, Growth Sustenance and Customer Engagement now become more powerful. NetworkGain's forte in tech-led revenue growth and revenue maximization is uniquely complimentary to how 3nayan works on an engagement". said Suhas Dutta, 3nayan's Co-Founder, Partner. "It rounds up our toolkit beautifully and enables us to jointly access customers we wouldn't have approached earlier independently. This handshake now allows us to drive far more business impact for our clients."
