In doing so, the report casts light on the growth of each significant segment of the market over the forecast period.

An augmented demand for distance learning programs is one of the key factors driving the growth of this market globally. Distance learning offers learning opportunities to people across the globe, especially to those who find it difficult to attend universities due to financial, geographical, time constraints. Most distance learning programs are delivered online or in the form of books and CDs. This market is likely to witness significant growth in the coming years as an increasing number of universities in the US have started providing online courses and have added a variety of new courses to their existing programs. One of the main reasons for this is the easy availability of low-cost software platforms that allow these universities to create, deliver, and efficiently manage courses online.
