About Pleasure P

The man born Marcus Ramone Cooper has been sharp-shooting Cupid darts since he was a kid, charming classmates and winning talent shows with renditions of Immature’s “I Will Never Lie.” Born with soul coursing through his veins—Mom and Dad both formerly sang in small-time bands—the Carver Gardens, Florida native idolized R. Kelly, Jackson 5, Usher and Jodeci. His solo debut, The Introduction of Marcus Cooper, featuring the sexy ballad “Under,” racked up three Grammy nominations in 2010.

When it comes to love, Marcus "Pleasure P" Cooper ain't too proud to beg, plead or please. "I wanna tell the women what they need to hear, take it back to love and romance. That's my m.o." The Southern-bred Capricorn regained momentum in 2008 with the piano-laden hit "Boyfriend #2," an open praise of the do-right guy on the side.

Pleasure P returns to sweet and sexy R&B with the anticipation of his new dual project entitled "PLEASURE & PAIN."

"I'm going to continue to be great," says Cooper. "You can't deny good music."

Marcus undoubtedly hones the craft of talent, but also as a father, entrepreneur, reality tv personality, and much more.
