How to track your Vote-by-Mail ballot:

You can track your mail ballot from the time you request it to the time we receive it by entering your voter information at www.pbcelections.org/Voters/My-Status.

Please note that once your ballot is received by our office, we process it to ensure there are no signature issues. If your ballot tracker indicates "Received" in BLUE, you are all set and your vote will count on Election Day. If your tracker indicates "Received" in RED, your ballot has issues. If this occurs, there will be an alert on the tracker indicating what steps need to be taken to address those issues. Our office will work to contact you.
