

HouseMaster® Home Inspections' Military Veteran Owner Andrey Barshay Celebrated, Shares Words of Wisdom

Honored as an exemplary veteran franchise owner, Barshay shared with HouseMaster what it means to be a veteran and the importance of Veterans Day

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS, USA, November 10, 2020 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Recognized for its commitment to those who served, HouseMaster — the original home inspection franchise — salutes veterans every day, but especially on this Veterans Day. Recognized by Entrepreneur Media as one of the Top Franchises for Veterans and by Franchise Business Review as a leading franchise for veterans, HouseMaster gives tribute to Air Force retiree Andrey Barshay on this year's Veterans Day.

"We're so proud of what Andrey has done for our country and so happy HouseMaster is the franchising business he decided to launch," said Kathleen Kuhn, President and CEO of HouseMaster. "Our veterans have proven to be leaders within our system. They embrace our culture and inspire all of us in the HouseMaster family. Andrey has an extraordinary story to tell and I'm pleased he chose to build memories with HouseMaster.”

Barshay spent 23 years in active duty with the Air Force until 2012. Upon retiring, he started exploring franchise opportunities, knowing he wanted to own a business.

“When I sat down with HouseMaster, they really gave me that military team feeling,” Barshay said. “They were there to make sure everyone else is successful.” In seven years as a franchise owner, Barshay has embraced a super-focused HouseMaster home office supporting his growth. He has expanded with a team of inspectors and values HouseMaster’s “business model, the culture and the organization — it’s like a family.”

With over 20 years in the armed forces, and hopefully, many more to come with HouseMaster, Barshay is thankful for HouseMaster’s commitment to veterans. He said he looks forward to making new memories with his franchise in Southwest Illinois.

HouseMaster’s guaranteed inspections enable potential home buyers and sellers the opportunity to make educated real estate decisions. From interior systems such as plumbing and electrical to exterior components like the roof and siding, the HouseMaster Home Inspection includes the evaluation of the visible and accessible major elements of the home. Our goal is to help the home buyer feel confident they have the information they need to make an informed decision.
