

HouseMaster® Home Inspections' Military Veteran Owner Daryl Hurst Celebrated, Shares Words of Wisdom

Honored as an exemplary veteran franchise owner, Hurst shared with HouseMaster what it means to be a veteran and the importance of Veterans Day

TEXAS HILL COUNTRY, TEXAS, USA, November 10, 2020 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Recognized for its commitment to those who served, HouseMaster — the original home inspection franchise — salutes veterans every day, but especially on this Veterans Day. Recognized by Entrepreneur Media as one of the Top Franchises for Veterans and by Franchise Business Review as a leading franchise for veterans, HouseMaster gives tribute to Marine Corps retiree Daryl Hurst on this year's Veterans Day.

"We're so proud of what Daryl has done for our country and so happy HouseMaster is the franchising business he decided to launch," said Kathleen Kuhn, President and CEO of HouseMaster. "Our veterans have proven to be leaders within our system. They embrace our culture and inspire all of us in the HouseMaster family. Daryl has an extraordinary story to tell and I'm pleased he chose to build memories with HouseMaster."

Hurst retired from the Marine Corps in 2014 after serving more than 20 years. He was deployed all around the world in over 25 countries in total. He spent 12 different years deployed, including a deployment in Iraq in 2003.

After retiring, he spent three years as a schoolteacher. But he realized he was being driven to do something else. "I wanted an opportunity where success or failure is on me," Hurst said. "It led me to desire running a franchise, and ultimately, led me to HouseMaster."

In less than a year since opening the franchise, the business has grown much faster than Hurst said he could have anticipated. As he builds his HouseMaster franchise, Hurst keeps in mind four points about military implementation that have become a kind of mantra for him: discipline; organization; planning; adapt and overcome.

With more than 20 years in the Marines, and hopefully, many more years to come with HouseMaster, Hurst is thankful for HouseMaster's commitment to veterans. He said he looks forward to making many more new memories with his franchise in Texas.

HouseMaster's guaranteed inspections enable potential home buyers and sellers the opportunity to make educated real estate decisions. From interior systems such as plumbing and electrical to exterior components like the roof and siding, the HouseMaster Home Inspection includes the evaluation of the visible and accessible major elements of the home. Our goal is to help the home buyer feel confident they have the information they need to make an informed decision.
