

HouseMaster® Home Inspections' Military Veteran Owner Joseph Welch Celebrated, Shares Words of Wisdom

Honored as an exemplary veteran franchise owner, Welch shared with HouseMaster what it means to be a veteran and the importance of Veterans Day

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, USA,

EINPresswire.com/ -- Recognized for its commitment to those who served, HouseMaster — the original home inspection franchise — salutes veterans everyday, but especially on this Veterans Day. Recognized by Entrepreneur Media as one of Top Franchises for Veterans and by Franchise Business Review as a leading franchise for veterans, HouseMaster gives tribute to Army retiree Joseph Welch on this year's Veterans Day.

"We're so proud of what Joseph has done for our country and so happy HouseMaster is the franchising business he decided to launch," said Kathleen Kuhn, President and CEO of HouseMaster. "Our veterans have proven to be leaders within our system. They embrace our culture and inspire all of us in the HouseMaster family. Joseph has an extraordinary story to tell and I'm pleased he chose to build memories with HouseMaster."

Welch spent three and a half years enlisted in the Army between 2000 and 2004. Afterward, he was in private security for a decade. But when he and his wife had their first child, they realized he needed something more conventional, a business that would allow him to be home after hours. He looked at a handful of franchises and was drawn to HouseMaster.

“You can make it as big as you want or keep it more of an owner-operator model,” Welch said. “I liked the flexibility and growth opportunity with HouseMaster, along with its great track record.” And five years in, he has another inspector working with him and is looking to hire additional inspectors to keep up with demand.

HouseMaster’s guaranteed inspections enable potential homebuyers and sellers the opportunity to make educated real estate decisions. From interior systems such as plumbing and electrical to exterior components like the roof and siding, the HouseMaster Home Inspection includes the evaluation of the visible and accessible major elements of the home. Our goal is to help the home buyer feel confident they have the information they need to make an informed decision.
