

Energy Ministers & Renewable Industry Leaders to Discuss Europe's Sustainable Energy Projects

Europe's renewable projects to be addressed at the Sustainable Energy Europe Summit held with the support of Portuguese Ministry of Environment & Climate Action

UNITED KINGDOM, November 11, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Despite the challenges of the global pandemic, the renewable sector has continued to receive growing support during 2020, with calls for investment to focus on green projects. Europe set their agenda in September with the announcement of the Green New Deal detailing investment of EUR 1 billion in projects which aim to accelerate the transition to climate-neutrality and the creation of a green economy.

Several European Energy Ministers, alongside renewable energy leaders, will discuss some of their current and upcoming renewable energy plans, policies and projects at the Sustainable Energy Europe Summit next week – a free of charge Virtual Summit produced by the Sustainable Energy Council with the support of the Portuguese Ministry of Environment & Climate Action.

“We're delighted to invite you the Sustainable Energy Europe Summit held with the support of the Portuguese Ministry of Environment and Climate Action. With a stellar lineup of Government and industry speakers, keynote addresses, panel discussions, breakout rooms and virtual
