This is an exciting time of year for us. We are on track to top last year's nomination vote total, and look forward to the final vote. It's a wonderful way to honor excellence in our industry."

Dave Goren, NSMA Executive Director

NSMA members nominate three people for their state's sportscaster of the year and sportswriter of the year, as well as for national sportscaster of the year and sportswriter of the year. It's a wonderful way to honor excellence in our industry."

The top two finishers – plus ties -- in the state categories will be placed on the final ballot. The top ten finishers –plus ties – in the national categories will be placed on the final ballot. A select panel of NSMA Hall of Famers and advisors will choose the 2021 Hall of Fame finalists.

The final ballot for 2020 awards and 2021 Hall of Fame voting will be emailed to members on December 1. They will have the entire month of December to make their selections.

Winners will be notified during the first week of January. Winners will be announced during the second week of January, and can be found on the NSMA website.

Award winners will be honored during the 61st NSMA Awards Weekend, June 26-28, 2021, in Winston-Salem, NC.
