Written for children 4-8 years old, book offers easy-to-understand explanation of the coronavirus, practical steps for protection

DALLAS, TEXAS, US, November 16, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local author Aimee Carroll launches a new children's book, Behind the Mask of COVID-19 for Kids. This illustrated children's book provides a simple and easy-to-understand explanation of COVID-19. Written in rhyme, children learn practical steps to protect themselves and others from the virus. The book ends on a positive note, thanking doctors and nurses. The target age group is 4-8 years.

Author Carroll said: "This book was challenging because it had to balance two competing objectives. First, I didn't want the book to scare kids with menacing virus illustrations and potential serious health outcomes. Second, I wanted to ensure the book treated today's pandemic with enough seriousness to spark action."

Behind the Mask of COVID-19 for Kids provides parents and their children both an educational tool and a way to remember this historic and unprecedented time. This book can also be a great resource for pre-schools, kindergartens and elementary schools.

The book is available for purchase on Amazon, and fans are encouraged to follow Behind the
