

Bob Jones University Announces Tuition Freeze

GREENVILLE, SC, UNITED STATES,
November 16, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Bob Jones University President Steve Pettit announced a tuition freeze for the 2021-2022 academic year to assist students and make college more affordable.

“Although BJU was recently named by U.S. News & World Report as the best value regional university in the Carolinas, this tuition freeze continues to solidify BJU as an incredibly affordable, Christian liberal arts education,” said Pettit. “With parents and students struggling with the uncertainties of COVID-19, the tuition freeze will help ease financial stress for our students and their parents.”

BJU students attend class in the Alumni Building.

For the 2021-2022 academic year, tuition will be $9,550 per semester while room and board charges will be $4,290 per semester. Overall, the total annual increase for room and board, tuition and fees is 2.6%.

The BJU Financial Aid office will continue to help prospective and current students access need- and merit-based scholarships and grants to further reduce their financial obligations. On average, 94% of new students who apply to the University for aid receive it.

Located in Greenville, South Carolina, Bob Jones University provides an outstanding regionally accredited Christian liberal arts education purposely designed to inspire a lifelong pursuit of learning, loving and leading.

BJU offers over 100 undergraduate and graduate programs in religion, education, fine arts and communication, arts and science, health professions, and business. BJU has over 3,000 students from nearly every state and more than 40 countries. We are committed to the truth of Scripture and to pursuing excellence in all we do.
