of today's announcement that Moderna's vaccine candidate is 94.5% effective against the novel coronavirus. This is perhaps the most promising news since the start of the pandemic and ACI is honored that Moderna will be present tomorrow as we celebrate the accomplishments of women attorneys and executives in the life sciences arena.

The Conference on Women Leaders in Life Sciences Law brings together a remarkable group of senior-level women legal executives from the life sciences industry to discuss the challenges and opportunities facing women in this industry. The conference also fosters communication between like-minded individuals about the key legal developments for the pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device industries.

For the first time in its history, the conference will be taking place in an interactive, virtual format with online workshops, virtual “meet and greets”, 1:1 networking opportunities, and many more virtual avenues that foster candid discussions, valuable collaboration, and meaningful
