

MDstaffers Answers the Call to Provide Mental Health Clinicians, Launches New Division

MDstaffers Sees Need For Mental Health Clinicians Increase 20X; Places More Than 600 Mental Health Clinicians Since September

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA, USA,

November 17, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MDstaffers, a Sacramento-based healthcare staffing firm, announced today its new Mental Health Division.

Following extreme demand for mental health professionals across the United States, MDstaffers

Providing dedicated leadership, staff, resources, and marketing to mental health shows our steadfast commitment to growing and improving upon our success in responding to the national crisis.”

Ryan Larkin, chief operating officer responded by dedicating resources specifically to mental health recruitment and staffing. In the last three months, MDstaffers saw the need for mental health clinicians increase twenty-fold, placing more than 600 mental health clinicians since September. The firm has a history of recruiting mental health clinicians, including psychiatrists and advanced practitioners.

“Mental health has remained among our top-three most-recruited specialties for several years, and now with the expansion of mental health coverage including telehealth, due in part to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is the right time to formalize the division,” said Ryan Larkin, chief operating officer of MDstaffers. “Providing dedicated leadership, staff, resources, and marketing to mental health shows our steadfast commitment to growing and improving upon our success in responding to the national mental health crisis.”

The new division will allow MDstaffers’ professional staff within the Mental Health Division to focus solely on psychiatry, mental health nurse practitioner, physician assistant, psychology, and therapy positions for locum tenens and permanent placement.
