

Avnan Announces Scholarship and Academic Awards in Partnership with Sheridan College

OAKVILLE, ON, CANADA, November 17, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Avnan, the Ontario-based electronics manufacturing solution that empowers OEMs to fulfill their design, validation and production needs quickly and cost-effectively, today announced the Avnan Scholarship and Academic Awards, in partnership with Sheridan College.

The scholarships and awards range from $500-1000 CAD and are open to Sheridan College students enrolled in the following programs:

- Electronics Engineering Technician

Our hope is that these scholarships will inspire students to succeed and encourage our local talent to stay local, even after they graduate."

Anuj Jain, CEO, Avnan

- Electronics Engineering Technology
- Bachelor of Engineering (Electrical Engineering)

The scholarship and award amounts and selection criteria are as follows:

- Avnan Scholarship - This $1000 scholarship is open to domestic, full-time students entering Year Two or Year Three of Electronics Engineering, as well as those in the Technician or Electronics Engineering Technology program.

Successful candidates for the scholarship must demonstrate academic excellence, with a minimum of GPA 3.8.

- Avnan Award of Academic Excellence– a $500 award will be given to the full-time student with the highest GPA completing Year One Bachelor of Engineering (Electrical Engineering) program.

"As a best-in-class electronics design and global manufacturing company based in Ontario, we're happy to give back," says Avnan CEO Anuj Jain. "Sheridan College, which is in our backyard here in Oakville, offers excellent engineering programs. Our hope is that these scholarships will inspire students to succeed and encourage our local talent to stay local, even after they graduate."

Those wishing to apply for the scholarship and award may do so through Sheridan College. To learn more about available scholarships, visit this page.
